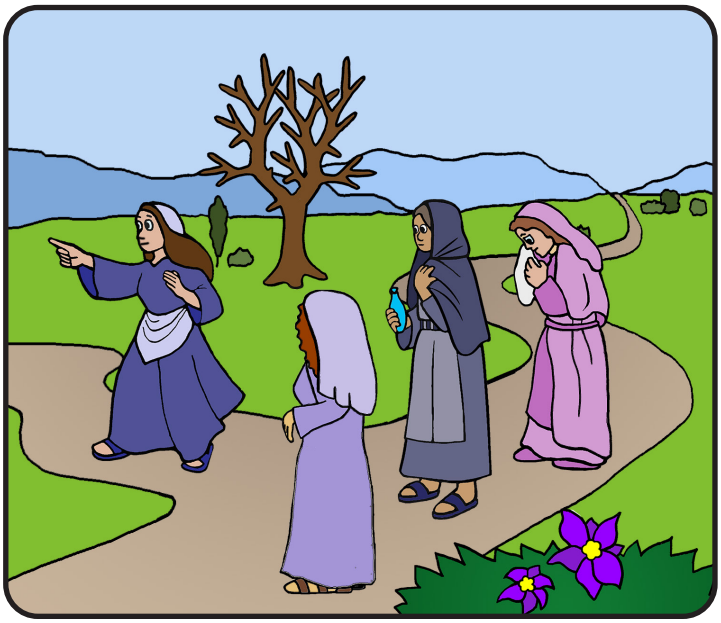
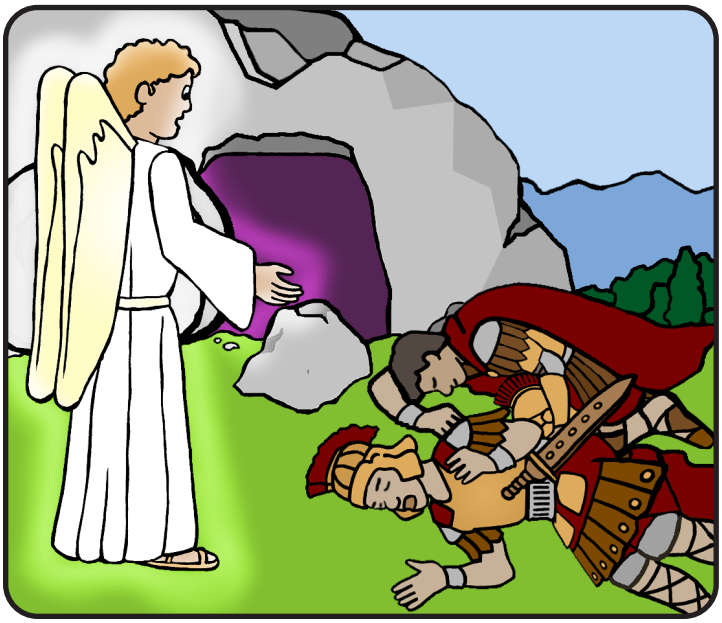
Jesus Rose Again

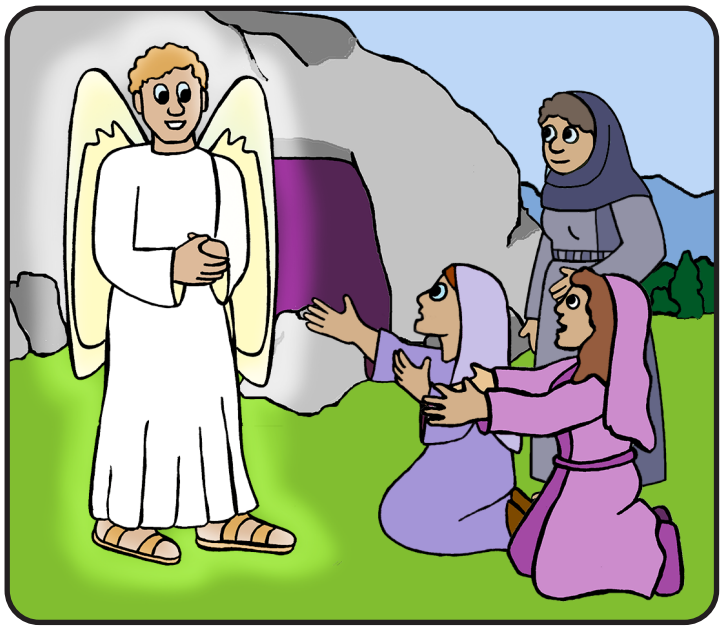
Today's Bible story is from Matthew 28:1-15.



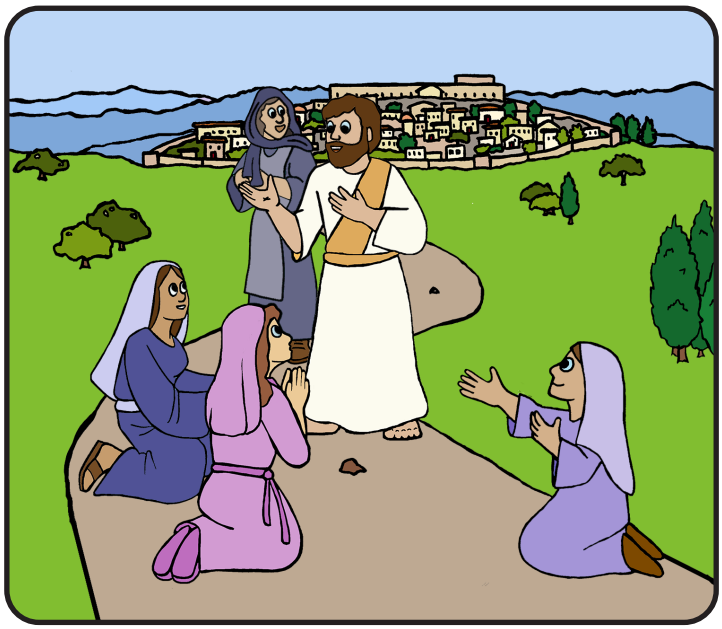
The day after Jesus was buried, Mary Magdalene and some other women went back to his tomb. They were very sad.



Suddenly, the Lord's angel appeared! His clothes were bright white. The guards who were there shook with fear and fell down.



The angel said that Jesus was alive! He was not in the tomb anymore! The women were amazed and filled with joy.



After the women left, Jesus appeared to them. "Don't be scared," he said. "Go tell the others I will see them soon in Galilee."

Copyright 2025 © Sola Publishing (www.solapublishing.com); Permission is granted to active subscribers of SEED: Sola's Electronic Education Database to download and photocopy for local use.

Jesus' tomb was empty!

Copyright 2025 © Sola Publishing (www.solapublishing.com); Permission is granted to active subscribers of SEED: Sola's Electronic Education Database to download and photocopy for local use.