

God Has a Plan

Today's Bible Story is from Esther 2:5-17a

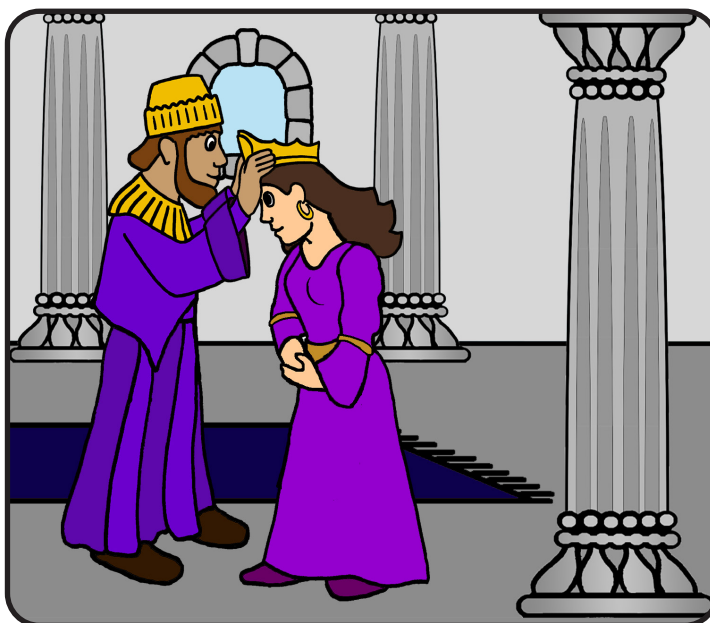

Esther lived with her uncle Mordecai. They were Jews who lived in Susa. Many people in Susa didn't like Jews.

King Xerxes sent his queen away. He decided to have a contest to pick a new one. Esther was pretty and went to the palace.

Esther didn't tell anyone in the palace that she was a Jew. She said, "The king will never pick me if he knows I am a Jew."

But, God wanted Esther to be queen. He had a job for her. The king loved her more than any other lady, and he picked her.

Esther became Queen of Persia.
