Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.” Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. While he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple blessing God.

Psalm 47 describes God as a king on a holy throne.

What might God's throne look like?
Draw what you imagine here:

"Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises! For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm! God reigns over the nations; God sits on his holy throne." (Psalm 47:6-8)

When people tell you that they can predict the future, it can seem very confusing.

To find out what Jesus says about this, look at the cryptic message below. Rewrite it, replacing each Z with an O, each Q with an A, each 5 with an I, each P with an E, and each C with a U.

"5t 5s nzt fzt yzc tz knzw t5mps zr spqszns thqt thp Fqthpr hqs f5xpd by h5s zwn qcthzr5ty."
