And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.” But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Who is your neighbor? Answer: Everyone you meet!

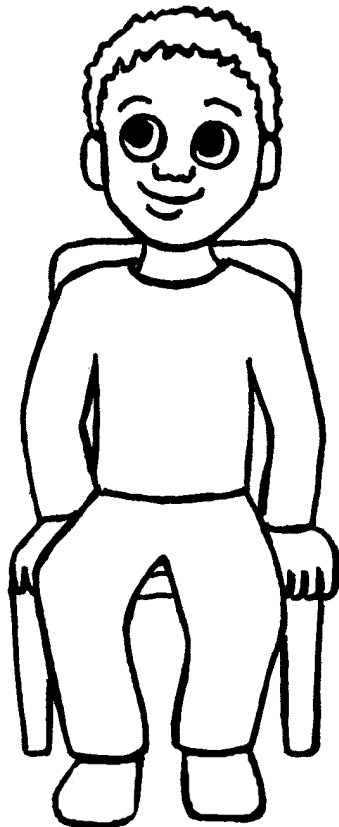

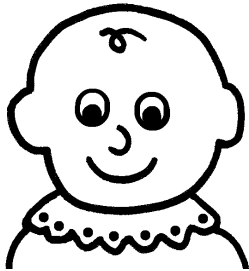

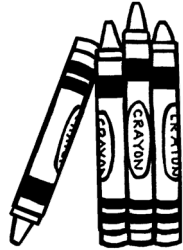

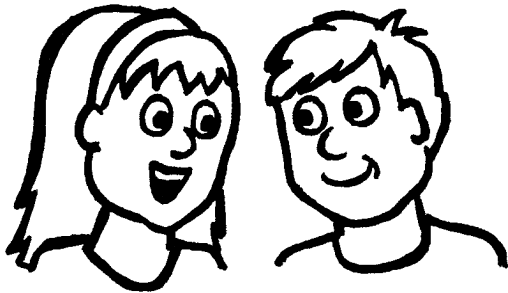

Color someone with brown skin and black hair.

Color someone much younger than you.

Color someone with white skin, gray hair and glasses.

Color someone with the same hair and skin color as you.

Color the heart red.

The Good Samaritan showed mercy to the hurt man. Jesus wants us to do the same for others.

Circle the things that YOU might do to show mercy and kindness to the people you meet.

I can stick up for someone who is being picked on.

I can help with chores when the adults in my family seem tired.

I can make sure my pet's food bowl is filled.

I can thank my teacher for teaching my class.

I can get help if a friend is hurt at recess.

I can sit by a lonely kid at lunch.
