Message This message does not go along with the readings because it’s a long connection between the readings and Advent for the kids. Next week there will be more verses right up until Christmas Eve. If you have younger kids, like we do, only teach them 2 verses. Older kids who can read can learn 3 verses. Last week we said HAPPY NEW YEAR to the church and learned that the first Sunday in the new year is the first Sunday in Advent. That means that today is the second Sunday in Advent. Does anyone remember how many Sundays there are in the Advent season? There are 4, and this is number 2. So, how many are left until Christmas? 2!! Today I’m going to teach you (and the whole congregation) a song and it’s going to cover the whole story before Christmas. Does anyone know the song, Mary Had a Little Lamb? Well, I’m going to give you some new verses to that song. Today we’re learning two (or three) verses. Mary was God’s chosen one, chosen one, chosen one, Mary was God’s chosen one, an angel came to say. A baby b-oy she would have, she would have, she would have, A baby b-oy she would have, Jesus would be his name. He would be the Son of God, Son of God, Son of God, He would be the Son of God, God’s people He would save. Next week we’ll learn the more of the story, right up until Christmas and then you’ll be able to tell everyone what Christmas is all about. Let’s pray.
Repeat Prayer	Dear Jesus, You love us the most! Thank you for giving us Jesus / who shows us your love. Help us to remember / that Christmas / is about YOU. Thank you for loving us. We love you. Amen.

A baby b-oy she would have, Jesus would be his name.

He would be the Son of God, Son of God, Son of God,
He would be the Son of God, God's people He would save.
