Message After Jesus rose on Easter, two disciples were walking down the road to their hometown of Emmaus. Let's walk with them. (do the finger walk) While they were walking, they also were talking (do the hand talk) They were walking (finger walk) and talking (hand talk). A stranger joined them (beckon with hand/arm) It was a secret that the stranger was Jesus (cross fingers). The stranger walked up to them (finger walk) and asked, "What are you talking about?" (hand talk) They were talking about Jesus (hand talk), but Jesus (cross fingers) didn't tell them who He was. The men were sad because nobody know where Jesus (cross fingers) was. They just kept walking (finger walk) and talking (hand talk) about Jesus (cross fingers). Finally, the stranger (cross fingers) started talking (hand talk). He said, "Haven't you read the Bible? Don't you know what it says? All the prophets said Jesus would have to die on the cross to save everyone." They all walked (finger walk) while Jesus talked (hand talk). He told them everything that was in the Bible (hand talk) about Him (cross fingers) as they walked to the village (finger walk). When they got there and were about to eat, the stranger (cross fingers) picked up the bread, said a prayer, and tore the bread. Immediately, the disciples knew that it was Jesus (cross fingers)! They were very surprised and then Jesus disappeared. All day they were walking (finger walk) and talking (hand talk) to Jesus (cross fingers). You can too!
Repeat Prayer	Dear Jesus, Even if we can't see you, We know you are with us. Even if we can't hear you, God's Spirit is talking to us. Thank you for loving us. We love you. Amen
